

Internship Opportunities with the Coastside Land Trust

If you are an Environmental Studies major and would like to learn about land stewardship and non-profit land trust operations, Coastside Land Trust in Half Moon Bay has unpaid internship opportunities.

Details

Location	788 Main Street Half Moon Bay, Ca
Duration of Internship	Approximately one semester, but quite flexible on this
Hours	Flexible. Weekdays and some weekends
Duties	Under staff supervision, the intern will visit and inspect land trust properties, collect data, write reports, assist in community outreach, restoration events, and office administration
Requirements	Intern must have: Reliable transportation to Half Moon Bay Ability to work outdoors in a variety of weather conditions and over rough terrain Suitable clothing for outdoor work. Writing and computer skills
Also desirable	Plant and/or animal identification skills
To apply	Send an email to Mary Mitchell (mary2doug@earthlink.net) providing: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Your name and contact information- Approximately when you can start- A short self-introduction including why you are interested in this internship.